

“Northern Pintail” by Neal Anderson

Donated by Scott Stuckey

Meticulously crafted, this beautiful print will be perfect hanging on your wall. “Northern Pintail” by Nebraska artist Neal Anderson (photo below) placed third in the prestigious Federal duck stamp competition in 1984-1985. This print comes beautifully framed and measures 26”.

Deeply inspired by the serenity of rural life and the natural world, Neal Anderson began painting his native scenes early in life. His cool pallet and realistic style perfectly capture the peaceful moods and subtle details of his subjects.

Winning the first of two Federal duck stamp competitions and the Nebraska "First of State" waterfowl stamp in 1991 were particularly meaningful events for Anderson as he has devoted much of his time to conservation efforts.

Thank you, Scott, for supporting our event, as well as all of our ongoing conservation efforts!
